Foreward

As well as recording some of our life at Charlottesville High School, we have endeavored to make this, the seventh link of "The Chain" a tribute to the Lewis and Clark Expedition.

To

Mr. Freeman J. Daniels

Our beloved teacher, in appreciation for all he has done to arouse "School Spirit," and to better our School and School life in every way; to one whom we all admire, respect, yet feel free to confide in, we the Class of '25 of the Charlottesville High School
dedicate this book

FACULTY

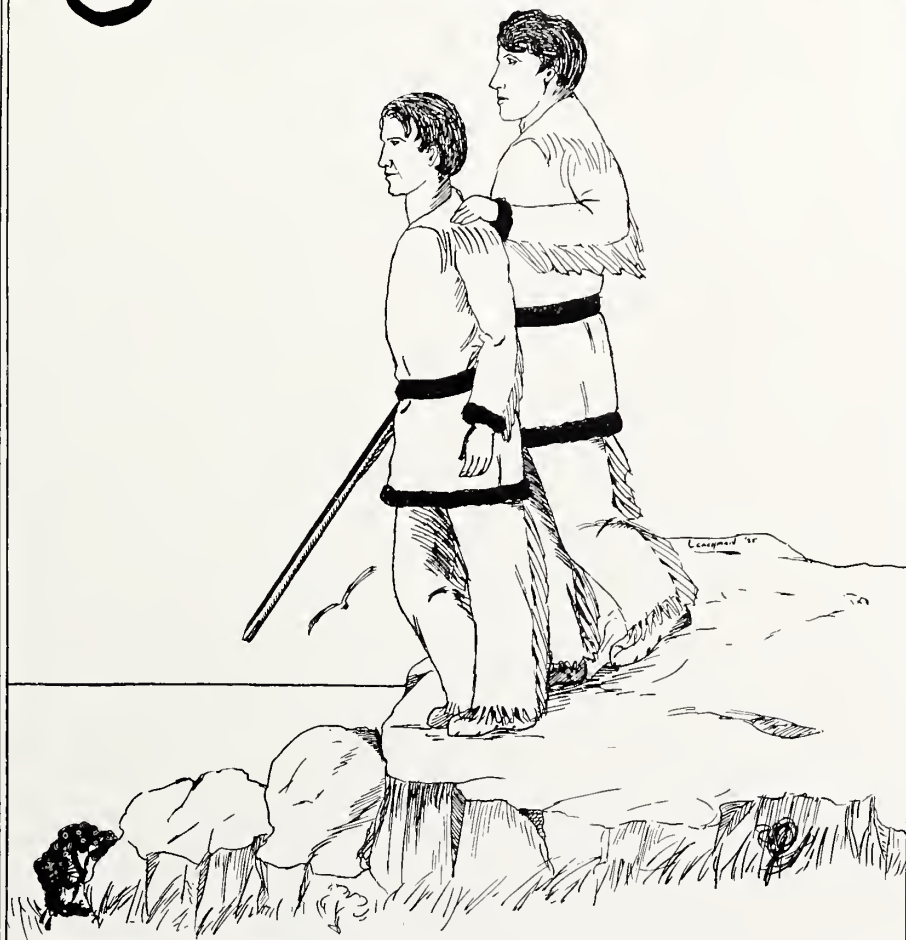

Appreciation

As members of the Annual staff and students of Charlottesville High School we wish to express our appreciation to the faculty, one and all, for their help and patience with us during this school year. Realizing that our best days are spent in high school, and that it is here that we form ideals for future life—we wish to thank them for what they have done to inspire us to higher things.

Senior Poem

Our expedition started
In the fall of twenty-one
We've had our share of sorrows—
But still we've had our fun,
We've conquered all our enemies—
Math and Latin too.
But the adventure is most over—
And we must admit we're blue.

We've climbed many mountains
In our trip through C. H. S.
And though at first we may have failed,
We've finally gained success!
We're now at graduation
Where we all hope to arrive—
"The best luck to this High School,"
From the class of twenty-five!

—NANCY CHEELY.

THE CHAIN

Class of '25

WHEN we entered High School we walked a regular chalk line. Miss Moran was regarded as a sort of witch or something equally as bad. This was, no doubt, due to the efforts of the higher classes who loved to scare the life out of the "Freshies" and over-awe them with their superior knowledge of life and its ways. This undue fear was rubbed so by experience in a short time and we settled down to work. After we had calmed down a little the weighty matter of electing officers was taken up. The result of this step was that Miss Julia Yancey was elected President, Harold Johnson, Vice-President, and Harry George, the handler of records and money.

After three months of recuperation from the fears and hard work (?) of being Freshmen we again assembled to repeat practically the same process. Several failed to appear, perhaps having succumbed to the worries attending their position. There was one large difference between this period and the corresponding period of the year before, we knew the ropes and were able to look down with suitable scorn upon the less fortunate class below us (we were overjoyed to have this cruel task fall upon our shoulders). After much deep thought and consideration Jack Henshaw was chosen as our chief, with Margaret Wade as assistant, and Harry George was given the care of the money and recorded for the year 1922-'23. The accomplishment of this weighty task took a huge burden off our minds.

Upon our return the third year in the process called "Getting an Education" we selected after proper discussion, Doyle Lacy to lead the parade, while Embree DuBose was made second in command and Harry George was again given the job of Secretary and Treasurer.

By this time our class was beginning to become recognized in the activities of the school. Four members were on The Bumble Bee staff and ten on The Midway Student. Owing to an increase in bodily, if not mental, capacity we made a showing in athletics also. Adams, Barlow, Lacy, George, and DuBose received letters in football. Our class had three members on the girls' basketball team and Lacy and Bonavita were on the State Championship Team.

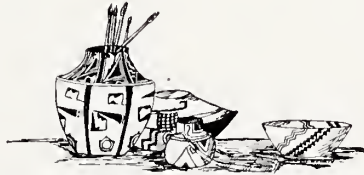

As our leaders in the final step of the process while under the roof of Charlottesville High School we obtained the services of Miss Margaret Bruffey as President, Thomas Leachman as Vice-President, and Miss Mae Irvine as Secretary and Treasurer.

THE CHAIN

Again members of the Class of '25 made a showing in both the literary and athletic activities of the school. Seniors were put in charge of both of the regular school publications. On the football team members of the class made a showing and put forth an effort for the honor of "Old Charlottesville High." We also had representatives on the boy's basketball team. On the girls' team Yancey, Swart, Cheely, and Cheape represented the Class of 1925.

And now after four years of hard work in the painful process we come to the end. We get our passports from the dignified and highly-learned Dr. James G. Johnson. As we leave we hope we have done our bit and hope the classes which follow will uphold the honor of the dignified title, "Senior."

—LAWRENCE QUARLES.

The Last Will and Testament of Class '25

We, the Graduating Class of Charlottesville High School, seeing as how we are big-hearted and generously inclined (if we do say it, as shouldn't) and, realizing as we do, that music hath its powers, will the following "records" of school life:

To Dr. Johnson—"Nothing Mysterious."

To Mr. Hayes—"You're the Kind of a Man We Won't Forget."

To Miss Price—"Suppose We Had Never Met You."

To Miss Eisenberg—"When the Roll is Called in Room 12."

To Miss Brown—"Your Smile Will Go a Long, Long Way."

To Mrs. Sanders—"Too Tired."

To Mr. Daniels—"Because We All Love You."

To Miss Scribner—"Sweetheart of Theta Chi."

To Mr. Lacy—"What'll I Do?"

To Miss Dawson—"Say It in Shorthand."

To Mrs. Fuller—"The Life of a Rose."

To Mr. Walker—"We're Just Wild About 'H. H.'"

To Mrs. McCue—"Glad Eyes."

To Miss Hankins—"Mean Cicero Blues."

To Miss Drake—"You'll Never Get to Heaven With Those Eyes."

To Miss Meredith—"Anne-ticipation."

To Mr. Long—"Aggravatin' PaPa."

To Miss Torres—"Juanita."

To Miss Sheppe—"Blue Eyed Naomi."

THE ACHAIN

To Miss Wampler—"Honest and Truly."

To Mr. Hounshell—"Ah! So Pure!"

To the Juniors—"When We Walk Out You'll All Walk Right In."

We appoint Virginia Dawson and Jim Swart as executors of our will, and trust to their ingenuity and tact in the matter of playing the other side of the record at the psychological moment.

—MAY IRVINE, Testatrix.

Prophecy

WAS in China when the letter came, having spent most of the five years since graduating in an attempt to reform the heathen. Tearing it open eagerly I found it to be an invitation to Swats' wedding. I packed immediately, so great a surprise could not be missed at any cost. So giving the heathen a vacation, I left for home. In walking the deck of the Cantdetania I was greatly surprised on encountering Bobby Lee. He said that he had endowed an extensive system of laundries in China so that the natives might no longer be tempted to emigrate and to embitter international relations, and had run over to see if things were working properly. Mildred Key, he told me, was on the same boat. She was returning from a tour of Europe with the Underwood people, having attained the distinction of being the fastest typist in the world. I asked him what he knew about the class of '25 and coming over we spent much time on this subject. I learned that Maude Baptist, acting under inspiration from Miss Brown, has established the Maison Baptiste, a well known French dressmaking establishment on West 57th St., New York, where, with Florence Parker, Hazelle Ross, Julia Yancey, and Virginia Washabaugh as models, and Royall Webster and Charles Dickenson as floor-walkers, she is doing a flourishing business. Since V. P. I. has become coeducational Margaret Fowler has been made Editor-in-Chief of The Bugle, with Lawrence Quarles as an assistant editor. Margaret Bruffrey has long ago married "Henry." They are living in New York, to be able to take in all the shows. Cordelia Armstrong, Virginia Lane, Frederica Selden, and Florence Laterneau are on a tour of Europe in the "Music Box Revue of 1930" with Raymond Kline as director. Jack Henshaw has just completed a book called Money—Its Evils, which has received very favorable criticism from such noted people as Senator Charles Andrews, William Gaw, the Korn Kake King, and Robert Thomas, who is one of the foremost literary critics of the day.

When I finally reached Charlottesville I noticed many changes in the town, especially the air of cleanliness and tidiness on all sides. Later I learned that this was chiefly due to the untiring efforts of Phillip Jessup, who is head of the Board of Health, and Mildred Sowell, his able assistant. Having hailed a taxi I was in the act of telling the man to drive me around for a while when I recognized him as Wilson Michie. He offered to take me around free and show me the differences in the place since I left. He told me that Nancy Cheely is running a hairdressing establishment, specializing in red hair, while next door Preston Crews has a barber shop. There is some talk of their going into partnership, but Louie Scribner, who is in with Preston, doesn't approve of having ladies around. Tom Leachman has broken the rule by being the first man to teach at St. Anne's, but since his advent Harold Barnes and Percy Spitzer have been enrolled. I also learned that there was a great deal of excitement in town over the wedding. Chief-of-Police Mustard has sent his best private detectives, Arthur Thompson and Ruby Holloway, to guard the presents. The Reverend James Hughes was to perform the ceremony, which would take place at the Baptist Church. I asked Wilson to drop me at Mary Culin's so that I might learn some more details of the wedding. Mary has made a fortune off of ten-cent combs, which she sells to the C. H. S. girls. May Irvine is the demonstrator at the high school. Lola C. Johnson, the district saleswoman, and Tom Brown, has the contract for painting her advertisements.

Mary told me that Mary Sadler was to be the maid of honor, and Serle Edwards the best man. From this subject we went to discuss old friends. She said that Margaret Lupton and Sarah Nuttycombe had bought Dr. Poindexter out. Bessie Maupin is the first policewoman in Charlottesville. Beatrice Downer and Doris Maddox are very famous opera singers. Pauline Alexander, Iris Amiss, Rhoda Sorge, and Corinne Carter have gone into the movies. Vestal Thomas has made her fortune off of her new French perfume, Jazz Mine Boquet.

Floyd Diggs and Thelma Reese are teaching at C. H. S. Norma Via, Mary Rush, Bessie Jones, and Helen Crawford are attending the University of Virginia. Margaret McBride is now carrying off the honors in college oratory contests. Louise Burks has married and settled down in Huntington, W. Va. Jack Early has established a very successful dancing school. Catherine and Margaret Frick have compounded a solution known as "Sta-Curled," which, I am told, has the desired effect upon the hair.

"Tony" Cheape, Ruth Bradley, Emily Head, and Ellen Herdt have acquired efficiency along domestic lines. Evelyn Harris, having married four times, is now editing the column in the Washington Post, "Advice to the Lovelorn." Arrietta McLane is giving a correspondence course in the gentle art of vamping, a course which Jack Henshaw and Harold Johnson have just completed. Vernelle Clements, noted authoress, has just finished Summer Came, the book of the year.

The wedding came off the next day, without mishap, the groom having proved the theory that "If first you don't succeed, try, try, again." I went back again to my task of reforming the laundry men.

By C. CHEAPE, Prophetess.

I cannot handle words in such a way
 To tell you what we saw—nor can I say
 How much is true and how much merely dreams
 Of wrought fancy, not long ago it seems
 We traveled in a boat upon the blue
 Expanse of sunny river winding through
 A place I thought at once was fairy-land;
 For emerald hills rose up on either hand,
 And plum-trees blossomed warmly everywhere
 To lend their fragrance to the gentle air.
 And while I looked about me at all this—
 Each little wind brushed by me with a kiss
 Upon my lips, or on my hair or throat,
 As to the land they steered our little boat;
 And ah, I thought, we surely now can land,
 And leave our skiff upon this stretch of sand!
 But suddenly—as from the empty air—
 A maiden stood before us, she was fair—
 So fair—we knew she must of fairy-land be—
 And graceful like a white anemone
 She told us sadly that we could not stay,
 And that we all must quickly go away
 Until next year—for Juniors cannot know
 That happy land where only Seniors go.
 So back we came, to toil and worry here.
 Perhaps—when Springtime comes again next year—
 When plum-trees blossom white and tulips blow—
 Once more the Class of '26 will go
 To that far country that is Fairy-land.
 And this time leave our boat upon the sand.

The Class of '27

The teachers think we're foolish
The seniors think we're dum
The juniors think we have no brains
And wish we did have some.

But as we often stroll to class
They're envious, I know
'Cause they'll soon finish High School
We've two more years to go!

Now you may talk all you want to
'Bout the hard life you have led,
About how much you've studied
And how, on books you've fed.

But school days are the best ones
In our whole life, you know,
And we are glad we're sophomores
Having two more years to go.

Freshman Poem

THE GREEN AND WHITE

Hurrah! for our colors,
The Green and the White.
For these dear new colors,
We'll fight with our might.
These colors mean, Freshman,
We're quite glad to say.
Oh, we love our colors,
More every day.

And back of these colors,
Now what do you find?
A real high school spirit
Is there all the time.
Yes, we'll keep on working,
We'll work every day.
To brighten our colors,
We'll find a way.

—By WAINDAY KING.

FOOTBALL TEAM

Football

Lane High football squad was ushered, at the opening of the season, to their new quarters on 14th street by Coach Hankins. They were at once put through the preliminary work preparatory for the initial game with Harrisonburg. The squad, though seriously crippled by the lack of several last year's veterans, who had taken some outstanding parts, entered the new year's work with untiring efforts. Their first game with Harrisonburg proved their ability when the score registered 7-0 in their favor. Fate seemed against Lane Hi. when V. E. S. defeated them in Lynchburg 12-0. Again they were forced to accept defeat, this time at the hands of Benedictine. On October 24th the Orange and Black changed their colors and defeated St. Christopher 20-7. Determined to keep their good name, they defeated Staunton Hi. to the tune of 12-0. On November 8th Lynchburg took us into camp by the score of 7-0. In this game both teams exhibited some out-standing playing. On November 15th our team defeated Staunton again, the score this time being 7-0. In this game the team showed some real offensive playing that Coach Hankins had been anxiously waiting for. This was the last game of the season.

Viewing the football season from the number of games won and lost, we had a very successful one.

BOYS' BASKETBALL TEAM

Boys Basketball

The decisive scores of the games which went down as victories for the Orange and Black and the comparative closeness of the games which were lost, showed the squad to have superior caliber. After taking the laurels from their contemporaries they played the W. and L. Freshmen and the Freshmen of Virginia. The squad worked hard from the first of the season until the final whistle blew in the Alexandria game. Our first opponent of the year was Earlysville High School. The team's work was excellent and the game ended with the score 44-4 in our favor. The Bridgewater team appeared for a contest on our home floor. Forging ahead after the first few minutes of play we continued to increase our lead until the final whistle blew and left us victorious.

On January 10th we journeyed to Harrisonburg to play the high school there. The score was 32-24 in our favor. Then the V. S. D. B. team made a trip here to play us. Lane High School's team had improved and again we were victorious, the score being 32-20. We were then forced to accept our first defeat at the hands of the strong Fork Union team on January 19th. This defeat was due largely to the condition that the boys were in on arriving in Fork Union, being thoroughly chilled by the long drive and not having time to secure any nourishment before the game. Had they played under different circumstances we feel sure that they would have kept their slate clean, but as it is, we lost 35-31.

Our next game was with Staunton on January 23rd on our own floor. Fate seemed against Staunton, for they were forced to accept the short end of a 28 to 9 score. Then our team journeyed to Staunton to play S. M. A. on January 27th. This school ranks as one of the best in the state and were forced to accept defeat by the small score of 28-22. On February 7th the Washington and Lee Freshmen played Lane Hi. The score ended in their favor 48-25. Our team on February 11th defeated Virginia Episcopal School, the score being 26-11. Again our team was victorious when we defeated Waynesboro on our floor on February 13th, to the tune of 38-9.

THE CHAIN

Our team then took the Valley of Virginia by storm when they defeated Bridgewater, Shenandoah College, and Staunton Hi. in one week-end during the latter part of February. We defeated Bridgewater High School 51-23. Never before have our boys showed such accurate shooting and alertness in guarding. The team then defeated Shenandoah College and Staunton Hi. on the same day. This indeed was a remarkable thing for a high school team to do, winning three games in two days.

Coach Hounshell then took his well-prepared team to Alexandria to play in the semi-finals of the state championship. We lost by the small score of 14-12. It was generally known that our team was far superior in many ways to their opponents. The old alertness of our players seemed seriously handicapped by some unknown factor. This defeat does not show real defeat, because this team will always be classed as one of the best, if not the best, that the Old Dominion has ever seen.

Spring Athletics

Charlottesville Hi. is looking forward to a good baseball team this year. The boys began practice on the 14th street field March the ninth. There is plenty of fine material which, with good coaching under Mr. Hankins, will develop a championship team.

Track has also manifested a great deal of spirit. There are a number of last year's men back, and the prospects for this season looks applaudable.

GIRLS BASKETBALL TEAM

Girls Basketball

With seven letter men back and one newcomer to the squad, under the supervision of Coach Hounshell the girls had a very successful season this year, winning ten out of twelve games played.

With such a wealth of material it looked as if the girls were out for the state honors, but fate took its course and the fast sextet from Waynesboro defeated them in the only games lost. Let it be said, however, that they deserve much credit for their efforts in trying to bring old C. H. S. another state championship. They twice defeated the sextets representing Lynchburg, Harrisonburg, Staunton, Bridgewater, and handed both Crozet and Fishersville the small end of the score.

One of the features of this year's team was their team work. In Captain Cheape and Leftwich they had two of the best guards in the state, while in Swart and Cheely they had a perfect passing combination which deserves much credit in the victories. The brilliant shooting of Yancey and the more brilliant passing of Stringfellow was another outstanding character of the sextet. Much credit is due the faithful substitutes for their untiring efforts in helping to develop the team, and this, coupled with the backing given by the student body, made a team of which C. H. S. is justly proud.

MUST HAVE FALLEN A LONG WAY

Virginia Walker says she dreamed she was falling from the top of a building, and while she was falling thought of everybody that she owed money to. My! what a tall building that must have been!

The only trouble with her is—
She's generous with blue slips.

THE LOW-DOWN ON YOUR FRIENDS

Sung to the tune of "Go 'Long Mule"

I.

Miss Mary Bell, she has a beau—

She calls him Teddy-bear—

I think she likes him 'cause he's got

Such pretty curly hair.

CHORUS

Go 'long Mule—

Don't you roll them eyes;

You can change a fool—but a daw-gone mule

Is a mule until he dies.

II.

Now Bobby Lee is quite a sheik—

He drives a little car.

He goes for rides with all the girls

But he doesn't go too far.

Chorus—Go 'long Mule, etc.

III.

We have a flapper in our school
Whose name is Miss Joe Hamm;
She always says, when she gets a slip—
“Well, I don’t give a—!!! (!)
Chorus—Go ’long Mule, etc.

IV.

Miss Catherine Swart is quite the stuff—
And she’s admired by all;
Of course you know her steady’s name—
And now she’s vamping Paul!
Chorus—Go ’long Mule, etc.

V.

Bad Bill and Tootsie seem to be Quite fond of one another—
But the reason is, that they both know
Something shady on each other.
Chorus—Go ’long Mule, etc.

VI.

Now boys, you know you can get a shock
From a piece of electric wire—
And when you see Mary Sadler’s hair
You’d better not play with fire.
Chorus—Go ’long Mule, etc.

VII.

We know a boy named Preston Crews
Who has a wicked line—
But little Nancy has one too,
And she’s got him strung up fine.
Chorus—Go ’long Mule, etc.

And Louie Scribner looks right shy—
But girls, this is relieving—
Upon my word, I've often heard
That appearances are deceiving.
Chorus—Go 'long Mule, etc.

Now—smoking stunts a person's growth—
At least, I've so been taught—
But I went right on smokin' when
I looked at Big-Jim Swart.
Chorus—Go 'long Mule, etc.

XI.

Chic Andrews is a handsome lad—
He thinks he is a sheik ;
But though he's got the looks and line
He's really awfully meek.
Chorus—Go 'long Mule, etc.

XII.

Mike Williams hikes out Rugby Road—
I fear he's goin' to flunk—
I heard a girl say yesterday
The reason is quite Punk.
Chorus—Go 'long Mule, etc.

THE CHAIN

XIII.

Miss Florence Parker is a girl—
Who likes to laugh and lark—
So when she goes for auto-rides—
She says, "Boys, keep this dark."
Chorus—Go 'long Mule, etc.

XIV.

There's only one in this whole school
That I don't love to razz—
Her name is May, and we all know
The lovely way she has.
Chorus—Go 'long Mule, etc.

XV.

I'm not a gossip, but I tell
All things I hear and see—
So if you want your name in print,
Just do your stuff near me.

Go 'long Mule,
Don't you roll them eyes;
You can change a fool, but a daw-gone mule
Is a mule until he dies.

SPEAKING IN TERMS OF MUSIC

Dear One:

"I'm All Alone" and "I Miss You." "I See You in My Dreams" and know that you are "My Best Gal." You are "The Only One" "Dearest." When "We Met" I know that "It Had to Be You." But wait, "My Blue Eyed Sally," because I'm going to "Follow the Swallow Back Home" and some day we'll have "Tea for Two," then "I'll Be the First to Kiss You Good Morning."

"Longing For You,"

"CHARLIE YOUR BOY."

ANSWER

Charlie My Boy:

"What Makes You Do Me Like You Do Do?" I believe you are stringing me along. But "The Blues Have Got Me" and "Oh! How I Love My Darling." Some day I'm "Just the Kind of a Girl That Men Forget" but you don't believe it, do you? I'm "Always Staring" at the "Red Moon" "Adoring You." Oh! I'm nothing but a "Dreamer of Dreams" any way. But all the same to "There's Yes! Yes! in Your Eyes," and "I Want You Back Ol' Pal."

Your "SALLY."

COMMON SENSE

(Apologies to Poe)

Once upon a Saturday dreary, while I studied weak and weary,
Over many a rare and curious school book I did pour—
While I nodded, nearly napping, at the knowledge I was gapping,
When I heard some noisy rapping, rapping at my chamber door!
Only this and nothing more.

Ah! distinctly I remember, it was in the cold November,
And each separate laughing member, walked in duck file thru the door;
Money, then I tried to borrow, saying I'd pay back tomorrow,
But o'er my Latin still I'd sorrow, tho' it gave me chills of horror—
Then—at last, I found my senses, with the rest I went to Pence's
Study then, I could no more.

We've worked on this Annual
With might and with main—
But if you enjoy it
Our work's not in vain.

Read page in—and page out
Read all our adds too.
And if you then like it
Why, tell us you do!

We've labored, and labored
We've worked hard and fast
But it's worth it to see
The link finished at last.

The annuals preceding
Have all been just fine
We think this no exception
To the same kind.
